Dear Gen. Muhoozi Kainerugaba

RE: APPRECIATION FOR YOUR FIGHT AGAINST CORRUPTION AND GRAFT IN UGANDA

The above subject matter refers;

Volunteer Uganda Extra Limited, is a duly incorporated body under the laws of Uganda operating within Uganda with the mandate of fighting corruption, Protection of human rights, ensuring transparency and accountability of public funds, legal protection and the rule of laws

On behalf of Volunteer Uganda Extra Limited and in my personal capacity, I write this open letter to express sincere appreciation for your continued efforts and commitment in the fight against corruption and graft in Uganda.

Corruption remains one of the greatest obstacles to national development, service delivery, youth empowerment, and social justice. Your bold stance and public condemnation of corrupt practices have inspired hope among many Ugandans, especially the youth who desire a transparent, accountable, and progressive nation.

Your leadership through the Patriotic League of Uganda (PLU) demonstrates patriotism and dedication toward protecting public resources and promoting integrity within institutions. We recognize that combating corruption requires courage, consistency, and collective responsibility, and your voice has significantly contributed to raising national awareness on this critical issue.

As citizens and stakeholders in Uganda's development, we believe that the fight against corruption should unite all Ugandans regardless of political, religious, or social background. We therefore commend your efforts to encourage accountability, discipline, and national unity in pursuit of a better Uganda.

Volunteer Uganda Extra Limited stands ready to support initiatives aimed at promoting transparency, civic responsibility, youth participation, and ethical leadership across the country.

We encourage you to continue championing the cause against corruption and inspiring leaders at all levels to serve the nation with honesty and integrity.

May God bless you and bless Uganda.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Tushabe Bruce Nzabanita
President of Volunteer Uganda Extra Limited
